Fees including VAT where applicable

Introduction

Dear customers,

Crédit Agricole Normandie is a universal bank that serves all, with a nationwide presence. Our priority is to accompany the projects of all our customers, based on our values of responsibility, proximity and solidarity.

As a socially responsible and highly committed bank, Crédit Agricole Normandie is more than ever mobilised to offer all its customers quality products and services.

Our teams are committed to providing you with personalised solutions on a daily basis, with the ambition of being a long-term partner.

In order to maintain all these services and our local presence, we are changing our fee structure on 1st April 2024.

Thank you for your trust and loyalty.

Glossary of the most common services associated with a payment account

(Article D.312-1-1 I.A. of the French Monetary and Financial Code)

Subscription to remote banking services (online, landline, text, etc.)

Set of services provided by the bank, whether or not it has a branch or location to receive customers, using new technologies (internet, telephone, etc.) to carry out all or some bank account transactions remotely.

Subscription to products offering text message alerts concerning the status of your account

The fees owed for subscribing to the alerts service as well as, where applicable, the fees owed for sending text messages will be debited from the account.

Account handling

The bank will keep the customer's account.

Provision of a debit card (international payment card with immediate debit)

The bank will provide a payment card linked to the customer's account. The amount of each transaction carried out using this card will be debited directly and in full from the customer's account, on a daily basis.

Provision of a debit card (international payment card with deferral debit)

The bank will provide a payment card linked to the customer's account. The amount of each transaction carried out using this card will be debited directly and in full from the customer's account, on an agreed date. It can also be used to make withdrawals, which will be debited from the account on a daily basis.

Provision of a debit card (payment card with systematic authorisation)

The bank will provide a payment card linked to the customer's account. The amount of each transaction carried out using this card will be debited directly and in full from the customer's account, after automatically and systematically verifying the balance (or funds) available on the account.

Cash withdrawal (in €s) from an ATM of another institution in the euro zone (with an international payment card)

The customer withdraws cash from their account, in euros, with an international payment card at another bank's ATM.

Fee for insurance covering loss or theft of means of payment

The fees owed to the bank in connection with the insurance premium will be debited from the account.

Transfer (one-off SEPA transfer)

The bank holding the account will transfer, on the customer's instructions, a sum of money from the customer's account to another account, on a one-off basis.

Direct debit (fee per SEPA direct debit transaction)

The customer authorises a third party (the payee) to instruct the bank holding the customer's account to transfer a sum of money from the customer's account to that of the payee. The bank then transfers the amount in question to the payee on the date(s) agreed by the customer and the payee. The amount in question may vary. The fees owed to the bank for the payment of a SEPA direct debit presented by the payee will be debited from the account.

Direct debit (fee for setting up a SEPA direct debit mandate)

The customer authorises a third party (the payee) to instruct the bank holding the customer's account to transfer a sum of money from the customer's account to that of the payee. The bank then transfers the amount in question to the payee on the date(s) agreed by the customer and the payee.

The amount in question may vary. The fees received by the bank for setting up a SEPA direct debit mandate will be debited from the account.

Unauthorised transaction handling fee

Sum collected by the bank for handling any transaction resulting in an irregularity in the operation of the account and requiring special processing: presentation of an irregular payment order, inaccurate bank account details, lack of or insufficient funds on the account, etc.

Map of European zones

- Euro zone countries*
- European Union (EU) countries
- European Economic Area (EEA) countries
- Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA) countries

* Monaco, Andorra and the Vatican use the euro as their national currency but are not euro zone countries. The Vatican and Andorra joined the SEPA area on 01/03/2019.

¹ The United Kingdom has not been part of the EU since 1 February 2020 but remains a member country of the SEPA zone.

Solving a dispute

The branch is at the customer's disposal to provide them with all information they may wish about the operation of their account and the use of the services provided to them and to respond in the event they have a complaint.

If an amicable solution cannot be reached, the customer may contact Customer Service, which will endeavour to find the best solution to their dispute, by writing to Caisse Régionale 15 Esplanade Brillaud-de-Laujardière, CS 25014, 14050 Caen Cedex 4 [or using the online form available on the Caisse's website: credit-agricole.fr/ca-normandie (access and/or communication costs vary depending on the internet service provider)].

The branch or Customer Service will acknowledge receipt of the complaint within 10 days and provide a response to the customer within 2 months at the latest. However, in accordance with the law, if a complaint concerns:

- fees or discounts for the use of a payment instrument,
- the provisions applicable to payment instruments other than cheques,
- payment services,
- payment service providers;

Customer Service will respond to the customer, on paper or another durable medium agreed with the customer, within 15 business days from receipt of the complaint. If exceptionally a response cannot be provided within this 15-day period for reasons beyond the Regional Bank's control, the Regional Bank will send an interim response explaining why additional time is required and specifying the final date by which the customer will receive a definitive response. This definitive response will in any event be sent to them within 35 business days from receipt of the complaint.

If the customer is unable to resolve their dispute by first submitting a written complaint to the Customer Service Department of the Regional Bank, the customer may also contact the Bankings Ombudsman, free of charge, by writing to the following address: Crédit Agricole Normandie Ombudsman, BP 411, 50303 Saint Martin des Champs Cedex, or using the online referral form available on the Ombudsman's website: <https://mediateur.ca-normandie.fr/>

The customer's request must be sent to the Banking Ombudsman within one year from making a written complaint to the Regional Bank.

As from the date the Banking Ombudsman gives notice of their referral to the customer and the Regional Bank, the mediation must be completed within three months, unless extended by the Ombudsman in the event of a complex dispute. The customer may obtain information on the progress of this mediation procedure by visiting the Banking Ombudsman's website.

For any dispute relating to financial products or services, the customer may refer the matter to the Ombudsman of the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF): by post (Ombudsman of the Autorité des Marchés Financiers, 17 Place de la Bourse, 75082 Paris Cedex 02) or online (mediation request form available on the AMF website - Ombudsman section at the following address: <http://www.amf-france.org>).

For any dispute relating to the marketing of insurance policies, the customer may refer the matter to the Insurance Ombudsman, by post, at the following address:

La Médiation de l'Assurance, TSA 50110,- 75441 Paris Cedex 09, or electronically on the Ombudsman's website at www.mediation-assurance.org

For any dispute relating to an online contract or transaction, the customer may use the European online dispute resolution platform at the following address: <https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/odr>

For any dispute relating to products or services connected with a property transaction, you can use the mediation service offered by Medimmoconso free of charge if your branch Crédit Agricole Normandie branch has been unable to resolve your dissatisfaction. This mediation service can be contacted electronically via the Medimmoconso website <https://medimmoconso.fr/> or by post by writing to Association MEDIMMOCONSO, 1 Allée du Parc de Mesemena - Bât A - CS25222 - 44505 LA BAULE CEDEX.
